About Nowcat

Nowcat is an Americana / jam rock band from Oak Island, North Carolina, built around singer-songwriter and guitarist Richard D'Anjolell and percussionist, vocalist and songwriter Shelia Bell. Their songs carry the easy pull of the Carolina coast, and they bring them to stages from the Carolinas to Florida, Nashville and Puerto Rico, as an intimate duo or a full band.

Nowcat debuted with MEOW (2021), five songs recorded in 24 hours with Joe Nicolo at his home studio. The follow-up, The Dunes Have Ears, is a six-song EP produced by Jamie Hoover of The Spongetones, and recorded in Southport, NC; it was reissued in 2025 and is available on Apple Music, Spotify and other streaming services. The band has earned airplay on Modern Rock 98.7 in Wilmington and on Cape Fear radio.
